

We are looking for a suitable candidate to fill the following position within the section of Systems Neuroscience (Prof. Dr. med. Michael N. Smolka), Clinic and Polyclinic for Psychiatry and Psychotherapy, Faculty of Medicine Carl Gustav Carus:

Studentische Hilfskraft (SHK, Student Assistant) (15 hours/week)

Position start date: 01 April 2021

Area of Responsibility (Focus):

Collaboration in projects of the new Transregional Collaborative Research Center 265 (TRR265)

- Participant recruitment/screening
- Administration of an MRI study/Piloting
- Data upload and management

Requirements:

- Time flexibility
- Communication skills in English and German
- Interest in scientific work or psychology research
- Experience with behavioral studies or be willing to learn
- Excellent coordination and communication skills in a team
- Ability to work in an organized and independent manner

Desirable:

- Education in Psychology
- Interest in long-term cooperation

We offer:

- Exciting insights into the neuroscientific research of addictive behavior
- Topics for a Bachelor or Master thesis
- Flexible working conditions in an interdisciplinary team
- More information can be found at <https://sfb-trr265.charite.de/>

Application Deadline: 10 February 2021

Please send your application (short cover letter, CV, and any relevant documents) by email to:

Matthew Belanger, M.Sc.

PhD Student

matthew.belanger@tu-dresden.de

Forschungsbereich Systemische Neurowissenschaften

Technische Universität Dresden

Würzburger Str. 35

01187 Dresden